As part of our plan to revitalize OUR Parish, we are currently in the continued process of instituting new events and programs, but more importantly, brining back many of our beloved groups. That being said, we are looking for parishioners to join, chair committees, or suggest ideas for new and old groups to be part of OUR Parish!

Parish Reminders

Being "Christian" to your fellow parishioners and visitors! Especially during summer (and throughout the year) we notice many visitors to Holy Trinity who are awed at the magnificence of our Church. We also need to be a welcoming" parish, in word and deed, welcoming to all! Humans are delicate creatures so your friendly and loving touch will go a long way to spread Jesus's welcoming spirit. This applies to everyone including parishioners, volunteers and staff.

Holy Trinity parish works hard to maintain a clean, comfortable and spiritual worship space. We have a beautiful Church with amenities such as air conditioning and a new sound system to be installed this summer, all meant to enhance worship for all and to attract more people to Jesus. Most importantly, WE need to be more welcoming and friendly to retain existing parishioners and attract new ones. Livestream Mass this weekend will be the Saturday 5pm Vigil Mass June 23. Mass will be posted for worship at a time convenient for you, especially for those away at camp or vacation during summer. If you are unable to attend in person where you are, Holy Trinity's Mass can be found on Facebook. Search for Holy Trinity Church Utica.

Next Holy Trinity Bingo will be Saturday July 6.
