From the Pastor's Desk

This Sunday is the Feast of OL of the Snows. On this date Snow fell from Heaven in Rome outlining the size of the First Church built in Rome in Honor of OL. Pope Liberius had a dream that this would happen and when it did he had the first church built which contains the original of the picture on this weeks front cover of the Bulletin. The Bulletin cover features a picture of our own copy of this famous painting which was taken here at Holy Trinity Church. This can be viewed any-time, as it hangs in the stairwell of the entrance behind the Rectory. The original was painted by St. Luke the Evangelist called Mary Joy of the people of Rome.

The Gospel of St. John Chapter Six. I would like to encourage all parishioners and Visitors to our Church to read John Six this weekend and meditate as well. Jesus teaches that He is present in the Bread of Life. Enrich your faith by your prayers at mass. Pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory to wake you up so that You might pray to Jesus and receive the Bread of Life at 8:00AM Mass. Moms, Dads and your Children do come! Start your day of right with Jesus at Mass.

Do read the inserts in this weeks bulletin Mary's Motherhood and ASK, SEEK, KNOCK The Pitfalls and the Potential of Catholic Door to Door Evangelization.
