Parish Reminders

How fortunate we are, as a parish, to soon begin our 128th liturgical year (Holy Trinity began in 1896 and the new liturgical year begins in Advent). Think about it: our ancestors built our beautiful Church and we, 128 years later, are here to maintain and evangelize for the future. Look around the Church at the wonderful stain glass windows, the magnificent interior and all of the reminders of our Heavenly Father! What a monumental task it would be to build up this Church today - let us be thankful, and appreciate what has been handed to us. We also must take the responsibility seriously of maintaining what we have, while inviting and welcoming in more people to God to continue the mission of Holy Trinity!

This weekend's livestream Mass from Holy Trinity will be the 5pm Saturday Vigil Mass (November 9). Mass will be available on Facebook for worshippers on Sunday and during the week. Our regular 10 AM Sunday livestream will resume on November 17.

Holy Trinity BINGO this Saturday November 9 @ 6:15pm in our school gym. Next Bingo will be the first 2 Saturdays in December
